

VIEWS ON THE RAPTURE: Posttribulational

The posttribulational approach contends that the Rapture does not occur until the end of the Tribulation. This means that the church will continue on earth during all the events described in the Book of Revelation up to the Second Advent of Christ.